

JUMAS web privacy policy

This privacy policy covers the JUMAS project website (www.jumasproject.eu) managed by Consorzio Milano Ricerche. Thus, its personnel, dealing with it, is committed to protecting your privacy and, in that case, we endeavour to use any data we collect from you to provide the best possible service.

Providing visitors with anonymous access

You can access the Jumas project website and browse the pages without disclosing your personal data.

Automatic collection of information

We do not use cookies to collect personally identifying information. In some cases, we could use cookies for the sole purpose of the technical operation of some areas of our website. If you prefer not to allow the use of cookies, you can change the configuration of your browser to either warn you when you receive a cookie, or to automatically reject them. You may find, however, that disabling cookies means certain areas of the site do not function correctly. We do not automatically log personal data nor do we link information automatically logged by other means with personal data about specific individuals.

Data collection and use

We collect personal data that you volunteer while using our website or conducting a commercial relationship with us.

To keep our databases accurate, we may also collect information about you from other sources, such as public records or bodies, or private organisations.

We may use your personal data for research and development or customer administration, only for internal purposes. We do not collect or use personal data for any other purpose, nor do we share it with third parties, but if we wish to use your personal data for a new purpose, we will ask your permission first.

If you give us personal information about somebody else, such as a colleague, we will assume you have their permission to do so, and their data will also be subject to this policy.

Confidentiality & Security

We give you the option of using a secure transmission method to send personal data via our website, when .

In general, we have implemented security policies, rules and technical measures to protect the personal data that we have under our control from:

- o Unauthorised access
- o Improper use or disclosure
- o Unauthorised modification
- o Unlawful destruction or accidental loss

All our employees and data processors that have access to, and are associated with, the processing of personal data are obliged to respect the confidentiality of your personal data.

We ensure that your personal data will not be disclosed to state institutions and authorities except if required by law or other regulation.

Access to the personal data we may hold about you

You are entitled by law to request a copy of any personal data we hold about you. If you would like to know whether we hold personal information about you, or to request a copy, you can ask us by emailing info@milanoricerche.it

We shall provide you with a readable copy of the personal data that we keep about you within two weeks. To enable us to release any data, we may require proof of your identity. We will provide the information without any charge.

We allow you to challenge the data that we hold about you and, where appropriate, you may have the data:

- o Completed
- o Rectified or amended
- o Erased

The services and links of our website

Our website does not enable our visitors to communicate with other visitors or to post information to be accessed by others.

Where our website contains links to third party sites, Consorzio Milano Ricerche is not responsible for the privacy policies of those sites.

Privacy compliance

Our privacy policy is compliant with the Italian Law "Codice in materia di protezione dei dati personali" (D.Lgs. n.196 del 30.06.2003), and we are committed to a procedure of self-assessment to ensure we continue to comply.

Amendments to our policy

We reserve the right to make amendments to our privacy policy in the future so that we continue to comply with the law and best practice. If we do so, we will advise you of changes via our website.
